Punitive Justice

At the heart of our criminal justice system. It centres on punishing people who commit a crime.
Social Justice

Concerned with breaking down barriers which prevent individuals or certain groups in society from accessing basic human entitlements such as shelter, healthcare and education.
Distributive Justice

Seeks to bring about social justice by ensuring that a society’s resources are distributed fairly among all those within it.